This will be Sketchmob's 5th birthday, so it is fitting we return to it's first location. Founded in 1123, austere beautiful and hidden in the middle of Smithfield's, St Bart's is one of London's oldest churches. It appeared in Fours Weddings and a Funeral, Shakespeare In Love and a host of other award winning films and TV specials. If architectural perspectives, decorative sculpture, thunderous church organs and people are your thing ... you will love it.

Group admission discount £3.50, all welcome
